BISHOP McCORT HIGH SCHOOL

JOHNSTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

FOREWORD

Throughout the ages, man's ability to create has presented to the men of all eras a desire to chart the uncharted depths of his mind. Today is not different. We find ourselves marooned on a fleeting age—an age equal to that of the Romans and Greeks, the Classics and Neo-Classics. We, of Bishop McCort High School hold a deep respect for man's past and preserve this respect for his future. The present, we hold most dearly, and speak of it frequently with God. We speak of the future as well, for only we can act as God's wedge in sculpting the passageways of a future. Man's task is not impossible; but possible in a fluent present. Create, we will—create, we must; for the students of this dawn find a great symbol in man's masterpieces of wood and iron, copper and gold. We sincerely hope to place these vital symbols at the starting point of our own masterpiece which only God and the future will see us complete.

Reverend Richard S. Hovanec, Principal

To devise a fundamental design from which a masterpiece can be created is the central objective of the high school experience. As seniors, we stand before an un-created imaginary superstructure of life and reach out for a plan—an identity—a foundation upon which tools may begin.

We are not alone in our search. One man, Reverend Richard S. Hovanec, his life and purpose, generates that prized image which will ultimately effect the polished sculpt of maturity.

As we, the class of 1969, approach the turning point of life, a sincere and meaningful thanks is extended to you, Father Hovanec, and everything you represent.

Class of '69

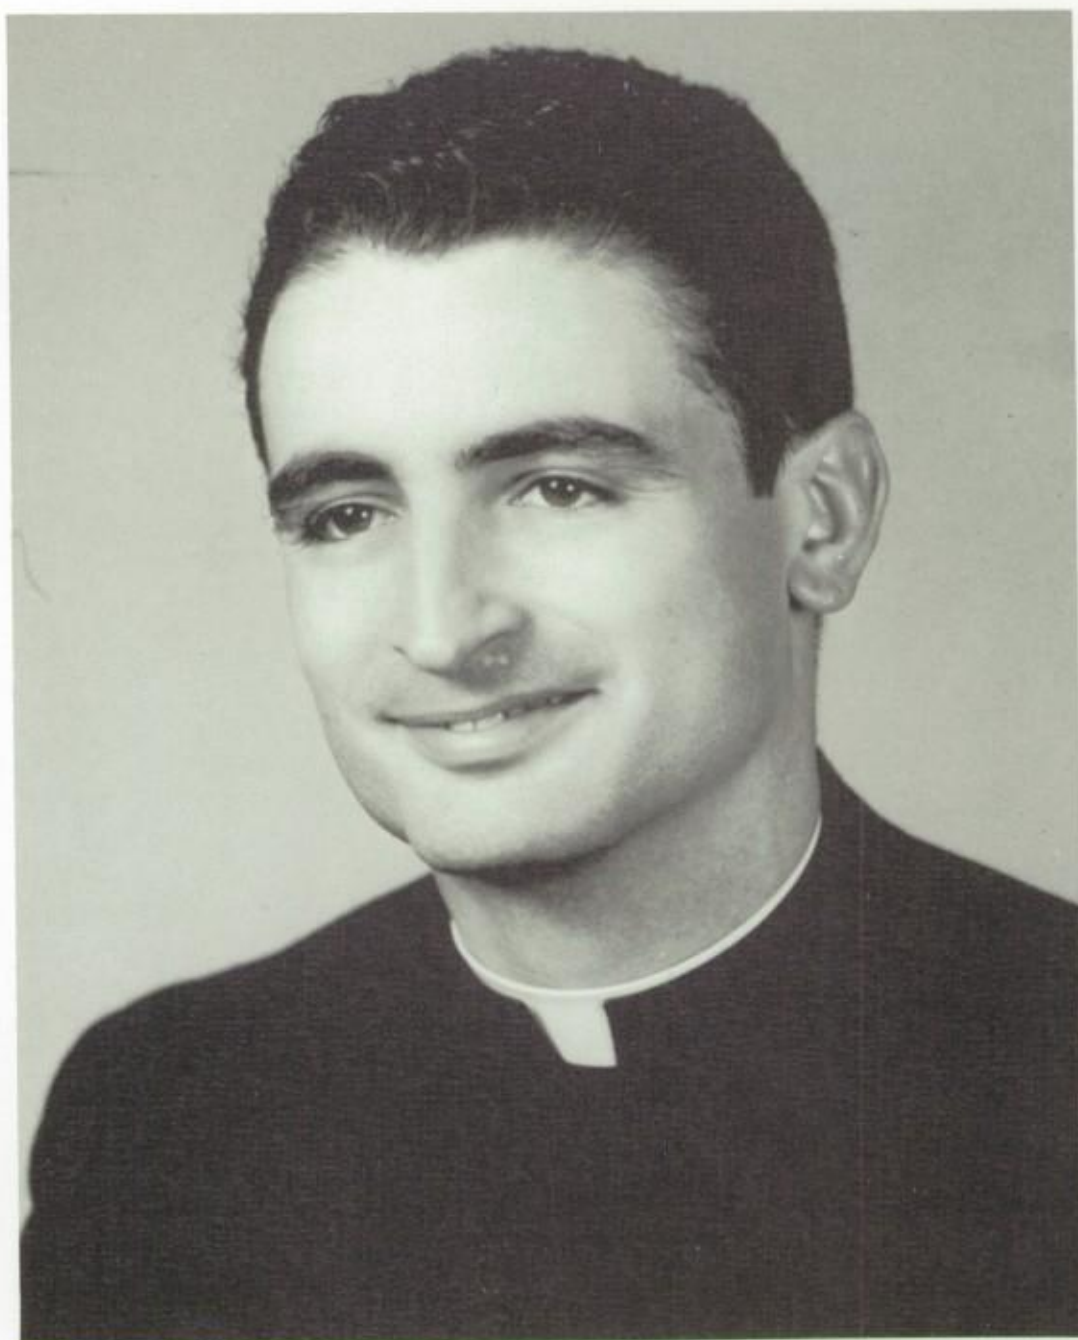

"No Man's Work Is Ever Done"

Seldom are images so well captured in a phrase as are the images of this single concept—a concept limited to no boundary, shackled by no time and ensnared by no world.

Time envelopes us in an age where education's machinery must never cease. Today's technology finds men behind every machine.

Often, devotion is far too difficult to match with gratitude; but, at this time, we sincerely hope to present a warm thanks to Vice-Principal Rev. James Bunn, the "educational technician" whose work at BMHS is never done.

Class of '69

Reverend James F. Bunn, Vice-principal

With the Student Council it's always business, business, business.

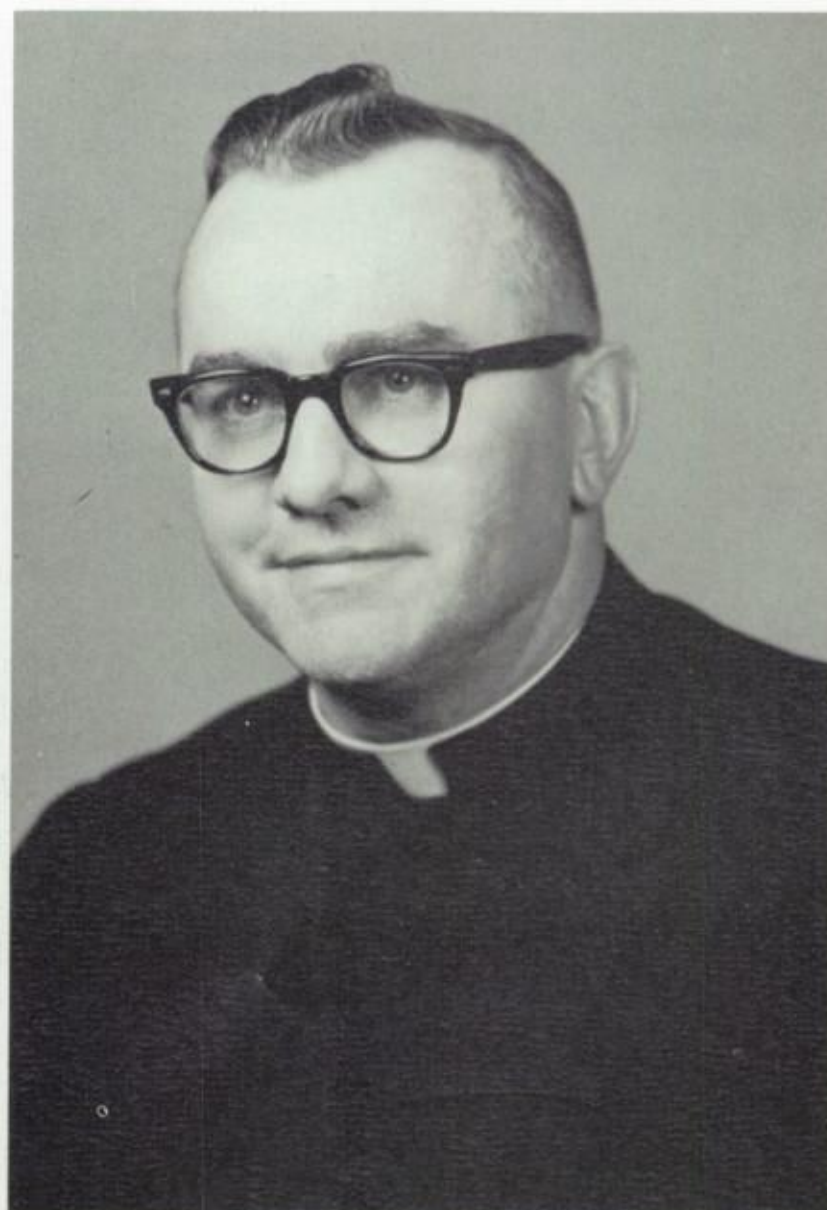

The Guidance Department, an integral part of the high school machine, etches a well-defined pattern in the future lives of the students it serves.

With hope of future success from their concern for us, we thank Sister Hilda Marie, CSJ, the guidance counselor of the senior class. To Rev. Charles Rager, a new member of the guidance faculty this year, we extend a hearty welcome.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council moderates all students activities such as arranging dance schedules, managing the Christmas Project which aids the poor of Johnstown, decorating the school both inside and out during Liturgical seasons, and creating a wholesome, cultural atmosphere in the school.

Moderated by a great educator and advisor, Father Bunn, it does more for the school than any other organization could possibly do.

Father Daniel Lyons spoke on "The Church and Vietnam" at one of the Student Council assemblies, and representatives of the Black Arts' Festival gave a brief history of the black race at another.

David Bako, Vice-President; Father Bunn, Moderator; Jane Gregorchik, Treasurer; Ronald Patcher, President; Angela Neilan, Secretary.

Senior Members of the Student Council

The Christmas performance of '68 under the expert direction of Father McCamley was the greatest. Preparation of the stage, including new lighting facilities, wall paneling, and over-all decorating were supervised by Father Bunn. Our expert handyman, Mr. Milavec, surely deserves credit for his craftsmanship.

MIXED CHORUS

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Students who are outstanding scholastically and culturally earn membership in the National Honor Society. This organization gives prestige especially for college acceptance. The officers are: Joe Racosky, President; Debbie Ross, Secretary; Angi Neilan, Vice-President; Sue Kinol, Treasurer; and Miss Mulvehill, Moderator.

Joe Brezovic, one of the speakers at NHS installation.

BMHS prides itself on the number of senior members.

LIFE

Continually expanding its network of information, MEMORIES spearheads the drive to capture the high school experience of '69. Moderated by Sister Mary Margaret, the yearbook runs apace the constant flow of education in progress. Characterized by hour upon hour of hard work, shaping and reshaping of ideas, and a happily enthusiastic staff, the yearbook literally represents every school function.

We, of MEMORIES '69, hereby dedicate this yearbook to . . .

CHESS CLUB

One club which introduces an activity entirely non-related to the school itself is the BMHS Chess Club. Setting up an intricate schedule, the Chess Club operates according to tournament play in the form of interclass competition with weekly matches for each member.

Mr. Paul Hollern oversees the Chess Club.

Guest speaker at a Jets Club meeting, Mr. Bruce Banger, an engineer from Bethlehem Steel, irons out post-meeting difficulties with Ron Varmecy, Tom Sojak, and Dennis Murphy.

JETS

In our school, the J.E.T.S. (Junior Engineering and Technical Society) gives its members the opportunity to try on for size any of the possible scientific careers in which they are interested. Moderated by Sister Mary Eudes, this club brings the science to BMHS as well as bringing BMHS to the sciences through contact with the persons and places of science and industry in Johnstown and the surrounding areas.

Officers of the Jets Club: Michael Leahey, Vice-President; Gregory Lear, President; Lucille Vautar, Secretary; and Frank Smigla, Treasurer.

Electronics Club Officers: Dennis Dugan, Corresponding Secretary; Christopher Manculich, President; Philip Ritchey, Recording Secretary; and Bill Svoboda, Vice-President.

"The Members Five": Tom Branski, Bernard Scubak, John Waltz, Robert Manculich, and John Schutte.

GERMAN CLUB

Sr. Thaddeus, Moderator; Dave Clark, Treasurer; Thomas Mauthe, President; Lorraine Adams, Secretary; and Joseph Rutledge, Vice-President.

FRENCH CLUB

SPANISH CLUB

With language as a major part of student curricula, BMHS smooths the rough edges of everyday classes through the extracurricular events of its Language Clubs. Contributing to the total effect of education at BMHS is the French, German, and Spanish Clubs with Sr. Clovis, Sr. Thaddeus, and Sr. Marie Colette, respectively.

Anna Marie Kozuch, Vice-President; Christine Slezak, Treasurer; Theresa Lope, President; Jackie Ditko, Secretary; and Sr. Marie Colette, Moderator.

The editors: Greg Lear, Gene Puzak, Moderator Sister Ann Therese, George Pisula, Frank Petrusic, and Tom Mauthe, standing. Seated: Anna Marie Kozuch, Kenwyn Horoho, Paul Schrier, Debbie Ross, and Pat McCracken.

Organized to reflect, the McCort Mirror represents the journalistic efforts of a large number of students. With Sister Ann Therese at the helm, our school paper rates in the All-American bracket. The students on this staff publish nine issues, and to do this successfully they organize dances and bake sales to finance publications.

Junior Achievement, in its third year in Johnstown, has continued to give boys and girls in this area, experience in record keeping, producing and selling goods or service, paying and receiving wages and raising capital.

Led by Mr. David Kean, Executive Director of Junior Achievement in Johnstown, high school students are organized into fifteen miniature companies of their own. This year BMHS is represented in the following companies: Cro-Go, Gasko, Juss, Sleetus, Telecom, Uni-Fab, Crowntique, Jabco, Janc, Trib-Co., G-Beeco, JBJ, Mini-J, Petco, and Watt-Co. Of the 345 members BMHS membership includes approximately 100 students.

Existing as an outlet to more enjoyable mathematics, the Mu Alpha Theta complements the in-class involvement with life's counterpart—mathematics. Besides initiating a student tutoring program, and organizing student presentations of the fine points of math, the Mu Alpha Theta also plans the traditional Sadie Hawkins Dance. Our chapter was represented at the National Mu Alpha Theta Convention at Dayton, Ohio, in 1968. The Mu Alpha Theta is moderated by Mr. James Roccio.

Officers of the school band: Denny Murphy, Historian; Judy Gradwohl, Head Flag Twirler; Roberta Sakmar, Secretary; Mr. Signorino, Director; Frank Pundzak, President; Rita Priest, Vice-President; Absent, Tom Rubritz, Treasurer.

BMHS has had the privilege of hosting this outstanding band for two years. Under the expert direction of Mr. E. T. Harn, founder and president of the "School Band of America" and "School Chorus of America," the Central-Western District Band presented a concert which was expert in both selection and rendition of outstanding music. Fifty high school bands participated. Mr. Samuel Signorino, conductor at BMHS, was host.

The twelfth day of February, 1969, Lincoln's Birthday, found the senior class of BMHS on the mountain slopes of Seven Springs. Skiing, swimming, and tobogganing, and all-round fun were the ingredients of the day. Seven Springs, which provided the instructors, equipment and slopes at a low cost to the seniors, made the acquaintance of many Johnstown students and teachers. The senior class thanks the moderators, administration, and Seven Springs for an enjoyable outing.

ART CLUB

The Art Club under Sister Virginia provides the instruction needed in a well-rounded education in art, and at the same time, creates an enjoyable atmosphere for a productive club. The Art Club assists in Class Plays with its work on scenery and gives faculty members beautiful, artistic gifts.

Officers of the Art Club are: Carol Malek, President; Julie Scott, Secretary; Christine Slezak, Treasurer; Christine Malek, Vice-President.

LATIN CLUB

LIBRARY CLUB

Under the experienced guidance of Sister Mary dePaul, the Library Club furnishes that extra margin of knowledge needed to tap the valuable reservoir of information found in any library.

BIOLOGY CLUB

In its second year at BMHS, the Biology Club, under the supervision of Sister Mary Katherine, serves a dual purpose—research in biology and interest in pre-nursing. It encourages participation in Science Fair Projects and it sponsors field trips as outlets in the understanding of all the biological science.

SLEIGH FULL OF DREAMS

A "Sleighful of Dreams" arrived at the North Fork Country Club on December 30, 1968. The delivery of Christmas cheer and spirit was made for a number of elegant couples. The George Acurio Combo provided the music as the night slowly transformed itself into a memory.

BUSINESS CLUB

In a world of expanding information there is a growing need for the skillful use and correct handling of a vast amount of data. The Business Club, with Sister Mary Jeanne as Moderator, strives to fulfill the need through the informal training of its members in an enjoyable atmosphere.

These Business Club members are responsible for most of the clerical work needed by the school and by the teachers.

Officers of the Forensics Club: Earl Glock, Treasurer; Joe Brezovic, President; Sister Joy, Moderator; Tina Sabo, Secretary; and Tim Bourdess, Vice-President.

FORENSICS

Forensics at BMHS finds its outlet in the Catholic Forensic League, CFL, and in the intra-diocesan activity, National Forensic League, NFL. In our school, these leagues, along with thirteen other schools, insure active participation in such areas as Norwin, Latrobe, Greensburg, Johnstown, and Pittsburgh. Sister Joy, moderates the forensics in BMHS.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll, which is the Stylist at its focal point, directs all its efforts to producing the literary magazine traditional at BMHS. After the year long task of extracting and reshaping of student thought, the Stylist and its staff, directed by Sister Mary Pearl and Sister Rosaleen, comes forth with a finished and well-polished product.

Senior members of the Forensic Club are Tina Sabo, Suzanne Schutte, Joe Brezovic, Bill Ondrejcek, Bill Svoboda, Frank Petrusic, and Frank Chovanec.

Steamrolling to an excellent record, unprecedented in the last five years, a high spirited Crusher nucleus found its edge in the driving determination of a team backed by its student body.

Season-long defensive tactics matched by a powerfully balanced ground—air offense led the way to a 7-3 showing for Coach Al Fletcher's McCortmen.

Crusher captain Carpenter cops cheers and calmly cools the crowd.

OUR STARS DID SHINE IN '69

The 1968-1969 Varsity Basketball Season has proven to be one of McCort's best, and Mr. Uriah's first 20 win season as head monitor for the Varsity Roundballers.

In the struggle for the PCIAA crown the McCort men were tripped up twice in diocesan play by rivals Bishop Guilfoyle and Bishop Carroll, with Bishop Guilfoyle eventually capturing the diocesan crown and the right to represent the Altoona-Johnstown diocese in the state play-offs.

The Crimson and Gold Cagers, even though dropping the state crown, sported an excellent 20-4 season, which also proved to be one of the best in the district.

With the cry of sweet revenge, the Crusher-Cagers also whipped all four opponents that handed them earlier defeats in the season, thus icing a perfect year.

Val chokes . . . off the court.

Pat Coyle in the thick of it again.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Mr. R. Martynuska, Coach

Under the guidance of Coach Martynuska, the JV handed their head-monitor his best season. Posting a (19-3) record, the "little crushers" molded together both speed and height into a working unit, capable of Varsity material next year. It was the long hours of practice and drills and the devotion to the team by the Coach that will certainly make the Varsity successful in the upcoming years.

"HO DOWN SIC EM DICK."

FRESHMEN CAPTURE WESTERN SECTION TITLE ONCE AGAIN.

The "BABY CRUSHERS" under Coach Farrell once again sported an excellent 18-3 season and captured the Western Section of the Pennsylvania Inter-County League for the third consecutive year.

Coach Farrell in the past has turned out excellent teams worthy of varsity ball and this year's team proves to be no exception.

"TOUCHE' AWAY!"

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Sponsoring the team from the football summer camp to the end of the baseball season, the Athletic Association of Johnstown gives the supporting hand. BMHS extends a hearty "thank you" to the fine group of men who make up this organization. The 1968-1969 athletes cheer you.

“RAH RAH, RAH!”

The 1968-69 squad of BMHS. Kneeling: Sue Mihalik, Captain; Joyce Oreskovich, Co-captain; Jackie Ditko. Standing: Linda Hammer, Lorraine Adams, Sharon Adams, Sharon Reilly, Debbie Kist, Patty Piskura, Sharon Seman.

CHEERING CRUSHERS

The peppiest group of girls ever, our cheerleaders really keep the spirit of McCort alive. Miss Joan Marhefka, sponsor, heads the team.

Because of winning last year's contest, the girls hosted the twenty-fifth annual competition this year at War Memorial. They did a job of which BMHS can be proud.
